DID YOU KNOW?

OVER 500 ASYLUM SEEKERS ARE HOUSED IN TEMPORARY HOTEL ACCOMMODATION ACROSS NEWCASTLE

Far from a five-star luxury stay, asylum seekers are packed into disused hotels across the City with just £8.25 a week to live on. Some hotels are on the outskirts of Newcastle, one of them being a 90-minute walk from the City Centre.

This makes it incredibly difficult to access key support services such as healthcare appointments, legal support and English language classes.

Newcastle's City of Sanctuary is a network of local organisations who want to enable asylum seekers trapped in hotel accommodation to access services across the city.

“If there's anyone listening to my words I have to ask: go and rescue those people in hotels.”
